- 1.2 The Group, in its ongoing efforts to maintain its ethical standards and with a view to upholding its position against any form of bribery or tax evasion, has prepared and set out a clear Policy which should be implemented in conjunction with the following Group Policies:
- HR07 - Disciplinary Policy;

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 The purpose of this Policy is to set out the responsibilities of the Group in observing and upholding the Group’s position on bribery and tax evasion. The Policy is fully endorsed by the Group Chief Executive Officer and the Group Board. The Board attaches the utmost importance to this Policy and applies a ‘zero tolerance’ approach to acts of bribery, tax evasion and corruption.
- 2.2 This Policy provides a coherent and consistent framework to enable Phoenix Group employees and relevant external business partners to understand and implement arrangements enabling compliance. In conjunction with related Policies it will also enable employees and relevant external business partners to identify and effectively manage any potential breach.

4.2 Tax Evasion

4.2.1 For the purposes of this Policy:

- Tax evasion means the offence of cheating the public revenue or fraudulently evading UK tax, and is a criminal offence. The offence requires an element of fraud, which means there must be deliberate action, or omission with dishonest intent;
- Foreign tax evasion means evading tax in a foreign country, provided that that conduct is an offence in that country and would be a criminal offence if committed in the UK. As with tax evasion, the element of fraud means there must be deliberate action, or omission with dishonest intent; and
- Tax evasion facilitation means being knowingly concerned in, or taking steps with a view to, the fraudulent evasion of tax (whether UK tax or tax in a foreign country) by another person, or aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of that offence. Tax evasion facilitation is a criminal offence, where it is done deliberately and dishonestly.

4.2.2 It is not acceptable for employees or any person associated with the Group to:

- a) engage in any form of facilitating tax evasion or foreign tax evasion;
- b) aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of a tax evasion offence or foreign tax evasion offence by another person;
- c) fail to promptly report any request or demand from any third party to facilitate the fraudulent evasion of tax (whether UK tax or tax in a foreign country), or any suspected fraudulent evasion of tax (whether UK tax or tax in a foreign country) by another person, in accordance with this Policy;
- d) engage in any other activity that might lead to a breach of this policy; or
- e) threaten or retaliate against another individual who has refused to commit a tax evasion offence or a foreign tax evasion offence or who has raised concerns under this policy.

4.3 Breach of the Policy

4.3.1 The Group will take firm disciplinary action, in line with the Group Disciplinary Policy (employees) or the terms of contractual arrangements (external business partners), in cases of proven fraud, bribery, tax evasion or other corrupt practices. This will very likely be immediate termination of employment.

Any proven instance of breach of the Policy by a supplier / contractor may constitute a material breach of agreement from which a termination of contract may result.

5. RESPONSIBILITY

5.1 The prevention, detection and reporting of bribery and tax evasion is the responsibility of all employees throughout the Group.
